I. PURPOSE/SCOPE

To communicate the expectations for Clackamas County advisory board/volunteers to demonstrate the highest standards of legal and ethical conduct in service to the county.

The Core Values of Clackamas County are Service, Professionalism, Integrity, Respect, Individual Accountability and Trust. The volunteer code of conduct is intended to clarify the importance of Our Core Values and to ensure that public participation at Clackamas County is safe and welcoming.

Clackamas County is committed to providing consistently high quality services and supports to clients and community at large consistent with our mission and goals. This includes maintaining a culture that promotes ethical behavior and a welcoming environment.

Clackamas County recognizes that its greatest strength lies in the talent of its employees, volunteers and governing/advisory boards, and expects its employees, volunteers and governing/advisory board members to treat their clients and colleagues with respect, dignity, and courtesy and to avoid conflicts of interest, or the appearance of such conflicts.

It is important for Clackamas County volunteers and governing/advisory board members be committed to:

- Immediately acknowledge any biased, discriminatory, or harassing behavior in a meeting environment.
- Creating a safe, comfortable meeting environment in which all members and the public at-large feel heard and encouraged to fully participate.

As such, Clackamas County volunteer and governing/advisory board members should be sensitive to the way in which their actions and communications may be received by others.

Although each individual is ultimately responsible for their own conduct, Clackamas County is committed to assisting its governing/advisory boards and volunteers in these efforts by maintaining an environment that promotes these standards and encourages volunteers and governing/advisory boards to demonstrate the highest ethical standards in performing their advisory or volunteer role.
