STATEMENT OF PROOF

History of Events and Exhibits:

July 26, 2018
Exhibit A

While performing inspections in the area, former Building Inspector Bob Stewart discovered unpermitted construction activity on the subject property.

August 3, 2018
Exhibit B

A stop work order was posted at the subject property.

August 6, 2018
Exhibit C

A violation notice was mailed to the then owner with a deadline of September 10, 2018 to submit building permits for the remodel of, and additions to, the single family residence on the property.

October 15, 2020
Exhibit D

An email from Mark Hepner, a residential appraiser with Portland Residential Appraisals, Inc. was forward to Code Enforcement. The email stated that the accessory building had been converted to habitable space including 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms.

July 7, 2021
Exhibit E

A violation notice was mailed to the former owner acknowledging that permits for the remodel of the house had been issued but had expired without approved final inspections. The notice gave him until July 21, 2021 to renew the permits and 45 additional days to obtain approved final inspections. The notice also gave 10 days for the owner to contact the County regarding the habitable space in the pole building.

July 29, 2021

The County spoke with the previous owner who admitted that there was living space in the pole building including a kitchen and laundry area. He is putting the property up for sale as is as part of a divorce agreement and would not be abating the violation but would disclose the issues to potential buyers.

February 2, 2022
Exhibit F

The property was sold to the Respondents on December 21, 2021, a violation notice was mailed on February 2, 2022 to the new owners with a deadline of March 31, 2022 to renew the permits for the remodel of the house and 45 days from the renewal date to obtain approved final inspections. Additionally, permits for the habitable space in the pole barn should be submitted no later than March 4, 2022 and 45 days for final inspections.

May 1, 2023
Exhibit G

A review of County records revealed that building permits for the remodel work in the single family dwelling had been reissued and had received approved final inspections, however, building permits for the living space in the pole barn had been applied for, B0135922, but had not been issued. Citation number 1800430 was issued in the amount of $500.00 for the building code violation. This citation was sent first class mail and was not returned to the County, the citation remains unpaid.

July 2, 2014

The County referred this matter to the Code Enforcement Hearings Officer.

If the Hearings Officer affirms the County's position that a violation of the Clackamas County Building Code exists on the subject property, the County would request a Continuing Order be issued requiring the Respondents to submit all required information for the pole building, B0135922, within 30 days of the date of the Order so the permit can be processed. The County would ask that the Respondents reply to requests for additional information regarding the permits within 10 days and pay all fees within 10 days of being notified the permit is ready. All required plumbing, electrical and mechanical permits should be obtained within 10 days of the date the building permit is issued and final inspections for all permits related to this building should be obtained within 45 days of the date the permits are issued.

The County will submit a timely Post Hearing Status Report. The report will be sent to the Compliance Hearings Officer and to the Respondents. The report may include the following recommendations:

- Waive citation number 1800430.
- The imposition of civil penalties of up to $1000.00.
- The administrative compliance fee calculated at $75.00 per month from February 2022 totals $2175.00, however, the County is requesting a reduced administrative compliance fee of $525.00 as a reasonable estimate of the cost of this enforcement matter.

- If the violations are not abated the County may request authorization for further enforcement action including to proceed to Circuit Court.
- The County requests the Hearing's Officer to permanently enjoin the Respondents from violating these laws in the future.

Subject: Question

Hello Planning Department!

I'm back with questions regarding legality of use on a property I am appraising.

8954 S Wildcat Rd

Molalla, OR

Owner: Miller

APN: 01125589

6S-1E-04 - 1700

Questions:

- 1) This is a 1 acre site zoned EFU. Is it a legal lot of record?
- 2) There is an older home on site that is being renovated. I found building permits issued in 2018 for the home renovation. The permits we never finale and have expired. In addition to the home, there is a 40 x 84 shop building on site. The owners have created a 2 level "apartment" inside the shop building. It is a fully functional home containing about 1900 square feet with 4 bedrooms and 2 baths. I didn't find any permits for the finished living area inside the shop. Is it legal? No - there is a 2013 permit for a pole building - no residential improvements reviewed or approved with this building there is record of 1 legally established home on this property.
- 3) Can a property owner create a temporary living space inside a shop building while remodeling another dwelling on the same site? You can have a temporary dwelling while building - this is a type on Land Use review building permit must be submitted to apply for this And do it without permit? No
- 4) If the conversion of shop interior to living space is in fact not legal, what is the chance anyone will ever do anything about it? This is an illegal dwelling in a permitted accessory/shop building no interior improvements have been reviewed or approved in this space. No septic review, or building review not allowed in the zone.
- 5) Would it be possible for the owner or others to continue to occupy both homes once the old home is fully refinished? No
