1.	Welcome, Agenda Overview, Intros Anti-Racism Statement The Suicide Prevention Coalition of Clackamas County condemns all forms of discrimination including racism, institutional violence and system inequities that negatively impact people of color. To be truly dedicated to suicide prevention, we must be committed to addressing systems that create and perpetuate trauma, pushing people to the brink and even ending their lives in despair and hopelessness. ✦ We acknowledge the land we occupy and from which we work, recognizing we have benefited from this stolen land. We respectfully acknowledge the original caretakers. Oregon was the historical land of at least nine tribes who made their homes in traditional village sites along the Columbia River and throughout Oregon. Many tribes also traveled and traded throughout Oregon and the plentiful natural resources of this area. As we move forward, we recognize these original peoples upon whose backs this state was built, as well as their ongoing stewardship of this land. ✦ We acknowledge the experience of Black and Brown community members and the reality and threat of institutionalized violence authorized by a white culture. We cannot ignore a shared history where racism justifies and sustains centuries of atrocities against African, Native, Hispanic, and Asian Americans. ✦ We recognize that systematic inequities, particularly those based on race and ethnicity, are major obstacles for families, individuals, and communities. Health and behavioral health systems have contributed to that systematic inequity. Structural discrimination continues to limit access and opportunity and traumatize those who are not part of and/or do not identify with the dominant culture.	Galli Murray	4:30 pm
2.	Oregon Firearm Safety Coalition About the coalition – goals, members, actions How to talk to owners of firearms about suicide risk and safety -- What to and not to say -- Importance of the messenger	Donna Marie Drucker	4:40 pm
