  - (B) You can request that the Hearings Officer postpone the hearing for good cause by writing the Hearings Officer at least 7 calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing date.
  - (C) You can request that the Hearings Officer decide the matter based exclusively on written materials from the parties or conduct the hearing by phone.
2. Procedure. The hearing will be governed by general rules of procedure designed to allow you to hear and confront the evidence against you, and for you to present evidence favorable to you. You are not required to present any evidence, the burden is on the County to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation exists, or existed. Either party may, at their own expense, obtain an attorney to represent them at the hearing. If you wish to be represented by an attorney they need only notify the County and the Hearings Officer in writing of their intent to appear on your behalf. The County will present evidence first, and then you may question that evidence. You may then present your own evidence, if you wish, and the County may question your evidence. Testimony by witnesses is evidence. The Hearings Officer may inquire into any facts that are relevant to the hearing and may question the parties or witnesses about the case. Evidence of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their serious affairs shall be admissible.
3. Record of Proceedings. An audio record will be made of the proceedings when a hearing is conducted. The audio record is available through the Clackamas County Code Enforcement Section and is available to you upon request.

His/her function is to preside over the hearing, make a record of proceedings, consider admissible evidence, and interpret and apply the law. After the hearing is closed the Hearings Officer will enter written findings of fact, conclusions of law, and any Order deemed proper. If a violation is proven, then the Order may include civil penalties, fines, administrative fees, or may require the respondent to take certain actions, or refrain from certain actions. An Order issued by the Hearings Officer may be a Final Order or Continuing Order. The Hearings Officer's Order is the final decision of the County, and may be appealed pursuant to Oregon law. The Hearings Officer for Clackamas County is:

Carl Cox
Attorney at Law
14725 NE 20th Street, #D-5
Bellevue, WA 98007
5. Right to Recess. If, during the course of the hearing, Respondent or the County requests a recess or postponement, or additional time to present crucial evidence, the Hearings Officer may allow a continuance of the hearing for good cause. The Respondent may also request that the proceeding be continued after the end of the hearing if the Respondent determines that additional evidence should be brought to the attention of the Hearings Officer.
6. Right to Appeal. The Final Order of the Hearings Officer shall set forth the right of the respondent to appeal any adverse Order. Appeal may be taken pursuant to Section 2.07.130 of the Clackamas County Hearings Officer Code, and Oregon Revised Statute 34.010-34.100. STATEMENT OF PROOF

History of Events and Exhibits:

- |                               |  |
|-------------------------------|--|
| January 19, 2021Exhibit A | In response to a complaint regarding an alleged building code violation, a letter was mailed to the Respondents.   |
| January 27, 2021              | In a telephone conversation with Angela Golleher, she stated that the original building, approximately 288 square feet, had been destroyed by a fallen tree, she kept most of the foundation but rebuilt the rest.   |
| June 21, 2021Exhibit B    | After determining that the Respondents would like to permit the building rather than reduce the size to less than 200 square feet which would not require a permit, a violation notice was mailed with a deadline of July 30, 2021 to submit a technically complete building permit application.   |
| April 24, 2023Exhibit C   | After a review of County records revealed that while a building permit application had been submitted on December 3, 2021, B0706321, plan review could not be completed due to a lack of information. Citation number 2100011 was issued in the amount of $500.00 for the building code violation. This citation was mailed first class mail and was not returned to the County. The citation was paid on May 19, 2023. |
| August 7, 2024                | After determining that a building permit for the accessory building had not been issued, this matter was referred to the Code Enforcement Hearings Officer.  |

If the Hearings Officer affirms the County's position that a violation of the Clackamas County Building Code exists on the subject property, the County would request a Continuing Order be issued requiring the Respondents to submit all required information for building permit B0706321 within 30 days of the Order. The County would also recommend that the Respondents pick up the permit within ten days of the date of being notified and schedule all inspections so that an approved final inspection may be obtained within 60 days of the permit being issued.

The County will submit a timely Post Hearing Status Report. The report will be sent to the Compliance Hearings Officer and to the Respondents. The report may include the following recommendations:

- The imposition of civil penalties of up to $700.00*
- The administrative compliance fee of $900.00**
- If the violations are not abated the County may request authorization for further enforcement action including to proceed to Circuit Court.
- The County requests the Hearing's Officer to permanently enjoin the Respondents from violating these laws in the future.

**This amount reflects an over payment of citation 2100011. The correct amount should have been $200.00,*

\*The Administrative Compliance Fee calculated at $75 per month from June 2021 totals $2775.00. However, the County is requesting a reduced Administrative Compliance Fee of $900.00 as a reasonable estimate of the cost of this enforcement matter.*
