County, and its duly authorized representatives, shall have access to such records and other books, documents, papers, plans, records of shipments and payments and writings of CCAA that are pertinent to this Agreement, whether in paper, electronic or other form, to perform examinations and audits and make excerpts, copies and transcripts. CCAA also agrees to provide reasonable access to CCAA’ employees for the purpose of monitoring. Audits may be performed onsite or offsite, at the County’s discretion. If any audit or financial review finds that payments to CCAA were in excess of the amount to which CCAA was entitled, then CCAA shall repay that amount to County.
4. Reporting. CCAA shall provide one progress report and one annual report to the County regarding use of the Funds. The reports shall include full financials of the organization, a narrative summary that details how the Funds provided under this Agreement were used, program outcomes, and other information reasonably requested by the County including, but not limited to, information necessary to fulfill County’s obligations under ORS Chapter 461. - C. The warranties set forth in this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other warranties provided.

8. Termination.

- A. Termination for Convenience. Either the County or CCAA may terminate this Agreement at any time prior to County distributing funds to CCAA. After County has distributed funds to CCAA, either Party may terminate this Agreement upon 120 days written notice to the other Party. In the event a party terminates this Agreement under this Section 8 A, CCAA shall immediately return all unspent funds to the County.
- B. Termination for Breach. Either the County or CCAA may terminate this Agreement in the event of a breach of the Agreement by the other Party. Prior to such termination however, the party seeking the termination shall give the other Party written notice of the breach and of the Party's intent to terminate. If the breaching Party has not entirely cured the breach within fifteen (15) days of deemed or actual receipt of the notice, then the Party giving notice may terminate the Agreement at any time thereafter by giving written notice of termination stating the effective date of the termination. If the default is of such a nature that it cannot be completely remedied within such fifteen (15) day period, this provision shall be complied with if the breaching Party begins correction of the default within the fifteen (15) day period and thereafter proceeds with reasonable diligence and in good faith to effect the remedy as soon as practicable. The Party giving notice shall not be required to give more than one (1) notice for a similar default in any twelve (12) month period. Upon termination for CCAA's breach, County shall have all remedies available to it at law, in equity, or under this Agreement including, but not limited to, requiring CCAA to return all unspent funds and to repay County for any funds used by CCAA in violation of this Agreement.
- C. In the event of termination under this Subsection C, CCAA shall immediately return all unspent funds to the County.
- D. Waiver. The County or CCAA shall not be deemed to have waived any breach of this Agreement by the other party except by an express waiver in writing. An express written waiver as to one breach shall not be deemed a waiver of any other breach not expressly identified, even though the other breach is of the same nature as that waived.
- E. Reservation of Remedies. The termination of this Agreement, regardless of cause, shall not prejudice any rights or obligations accrued to the Parties prior to termination. Each party shall have all rights and remedies available to it at law, in equity, or under this Agreement.

9. Indemnification. CCAA agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend County and its officers, elected officials, agents and employees, from and against all claims, actions, losses, liabilities, including reasonable attorney and accounting fees, and all expenses incidental to the investigation and defense thereof, arising out of or based upon CCAA's acts or omissions in performing under this Agreement including, but not limited to, any claim that CCAA used the Funds for ineligible purposes under ORS 461.540.

CCAA shall not be required to indemnify County for any such liability arising solely out of negligent acts or omissions of the County in performing under this Agreement. However, neither CCAA nor any attorney engaged by CCAA shall defend the claim in the name of County or any department of County, nor purport to act as legal representative of County or any of its departments, without first receiving from the Clackamas County Counsel's Office authority to act as legal counsel for County, nor shall CCAA settle any claim on behalf of County without the approval of the Clackamas County Counsel's Office. County may, at its election and expense, assume its own defense and settlement.
