Dear Voter,

The Clackamas County Elections Division is contacting you because you must take action for your ballot to be counted!

We are unable to match the ballot envelope signature to your voter registration signature(s) on file.

We cannot count your November 5, 2024 General ballot until you complete and return a new voter registration form that reflects your current signature. It must be returned by 5:00 PM on November 26, 2024. Postmark does not count!

Please use the voter registration form printed on the back of this letter to update your voter registration signature. You may return your completed form by:

- E-mail to elections@clackamas.us (scanned or digital photo).
- Fax to 503-655-8461.
- Mail to 1710 Red Soils Court, Suite 100, Oregon City, OR 97045. (A return envelope has been provided for your convenience—no postage needed.)

If you do not respond to this notice, then your ballot cannot be counted and your registration status will change to Inactive. You will not be able to vote in elections or sign petitions until you update your signature. Please update your registration to resolve the issue.

Please contact the Clackamas County Elections Division at 503-655-8510 or elections@clackamas.us if you have any questions or want assistance with completing the voter registration form.

Thank you,
