

Legal issues for family caregivers

Attorney-at-law Meredith Williamson has a special interest in helping families navigate the legal and financial matters of aging and care. In Navigating the Journey's "Legal Issues" presentation, Meredith will provide you with up-to-date information and discussions on subjects including:

- Ways to pay for long term care,
- The difference between a power of attorney and the advance directive
- The documents everyone should have in place and what happens if they aren't.

This presentation is hosted by Providence ElderPlace, Providence Home Services, Multnomah County Family Caregiver Support Program, and Clackamas County Family Caregiver Support Program.

About Meredith Williamson, J.D.

Meredith Williamson is a client-focused attorney specializing in estate planning, elder law, probate, and small business transactions. She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Oregon and Law degree from the University of San Diego School of Law. She is accredited with the Veterans Administration and is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.

Meredith worked for two law firms while in California: Downey Brand, and Klein, DeNatale, Goldner. She then returned to Oregon where, prior to opening NW Estate Law, LLC in northwest Portland, she co-owned and operated a family company serving seniors in Oregon and SW Washington. Meredith is also the legal editor of the Oregon State Bar's 2012 publication Legal Issues for Older Adults, and a guest speaker on the Oregon State Bar's legal podcast.
