SAFETY TIPS

- Know your target — and what's beyond it.
- Never use drugs or alcohol before or during shooting.
- Be sure your firearm is safe to shoot.
- Store firearms so they aren't accessible to unauthorized persons.
- Always keep the firearm pointed in a safe direction.
- Always keep your finger off the trigger until you're ready to shoot.
- Use only the correct ammunition for your firearm.
- Wear eye and ear protection as appropriate.
- All firearms are always loaded.

The Public Safety Training Center offers public-safety and shooting classes, fingerprinting services, crisis simulators, a public gun range, a concealed-handgun licensing office and much more. Our classes give PSTC members and non-members an opportunity to improve themselves in a variety of self-defense disciplines.

Non-Member Range Prices • $18 per person

Minimum age allowed on the range is 12 years old. Users under 18 must have legal guardian permission in writing and be accompanied by a legal guardian.

Gun Rentals

$10 members,
$12 non-members,
$6 revolver

- Over 60 guns for rent
- You must have a working firearm with you to rent one.

RANGE USER REQUIREMENTS

All range users must have a working firearm in their possession when they visit the PSTC. All PSTC users must also take and pass a safety orientation (with test).

CLEAN FIRE AMMUNITION

All ammunition must be purchased from the PSTC Armory. When available, "clean fire" ammunition will be used. It virtually eliminates lead vapors generated at the firing point — by combining a total metal jacket and a priming mixture containing no toxic elements.

ARMORY SUPPLIES

For the convenience of the shooting enthusiast, the PSTC Armory carries shooting glasses, hearing protection, targets and self-defense ammunition, catering to both the public and law enforcement. Products from prominent vendors are featured.

PST 101 Basic Handgun Skill Development $159

This one-day class is the starting point for the Public Safety Training Center's handgun-skills curriculum. It requires no prior handgun knowledge or experience. Understanding the principles of basic firearms safety is emphasized throughout PST 101 — in a classroom lecture and on the range. The fundamentals of marksmanship are a focus of the class, in both dry- and live-fire exercises.

Classes are scheduled each month on selected Saturdays or Sundays, beginning at 9 a.m. Though completion of this class satisfies the statute requirements for application for an Oregon concealed handgun license, it is strongly recommended that the student seek additional training in Oregon's Use of Force laws, presented in the PST 100 class.

Topics covered:

- Firearm safety rules
- Safe storage methods
- Handgun function and nomenclature
- Ammunition components and function
- Fundamentals of marksmanship
- Basic gun handling
- Introduction to:
 1. Shooting faster
 2. Distance shooting
 3. Shooting under time limits
- Personal practice regimen

Equipment needed:

- Pen or pencil
- 200 rounds of ammunition
- Photo ID

The following equipment is also required, but may be provided as part of class tuition at student's advance request:

- Handgun equipped with slide-lock
- Wrap-around eye protection
- Muff-style hearing protection

PST 101A Accelerated Basic Pistol

$159

This full-day course is intended for graduates of PST 101 (or students who wish to bypass PST 101 after an instructor waiver) and who wish to continue their training and achieve entrance to PST 102. Picking up where PST 101 leaves off, this class introduces some basic defensive-handgun skills. This is “102 prep.”

Prerequisites: This class requires that you have taken and passed PST 101 or take a mandatory entrance exam — which entails a live-fire evaluation of your gun handling and basic marksmanship skill.

There is no additional fee or appointment necessary to take this test.

Current CHL or current background check required to sign up for this class.

Topics covered:

- Universal firearm safety rules
- Marksmanship fundamentals review
- Threat ready
- Low ready/search
- Speed reloading
- Magazine save (tactical) reloading
- Indoor/close-quarters ready
- Verbal tactics
- Drawing from holster

Equipment needed:

- Firearm with slide-lock
- Pen or pencil
- 350 rounds of ammunition, purchased from the PSTC on day of class (.380/9mm/.38 Special minimum)
- Strong-side, belt-secured, molded or semi-rigid holster and belt
- At least 4 magazines/speed-loaders
- Magazine/speed-loader pouches strongly recommended
- Heavy duty belt

PST 102 Defensive Handgun Skill Development

$299

This intensive 2-day course (minimum 16 hours) is the starting point for realistic self-defense preparedness. If you keep or carry a handgun for defensive purposes, you need this training.

You will learn the professional attitudes and personal habits needed to keep you safe — as well as gain a unique understanding of some of the legal and personal responsibilities you assume as a gun owner. You will learn to safely and efficiently draw from concealment, re-holster, reload and clear malfunctions. You will increase accuracy and speed through coached and supervised systematic, repetitive drills. You will develop your ability to safely operate your handgun with control, precision and speed.

Successful completion of this course confers the provisional privilege of:

- Use of the PSTC's Tactical Training (Green) Deck
- Eligibility for enrollment in PST 103

Prerequisites:

- PST 101A Qualification
- CHL or current background check

Topics covered:

- Firearms safety
- Defensive handgun fundamentals and principles
- Ready positions and the use of movement
- Speed and tactical reloading
- Clearing malfunctions
- Rapid fire and failure to stop engagements
- Verbalization in defensive simulations
- The defensive draw stroke
- Introduction to index firing

Equipment needed:

- Defensive handgun with slide-lock (.380ACP caliber or larger)
- Strong-side, belt-secured, molded or semi-rigid holster and heavy duty belt
- Minimum of 5 magazines or reloading devices and carrier
- Minimum 600 rounds of ammunition
- Wrap-around eye protection
- Muff-style hearing protection
- Overgarment (jacket/sweater)

PST 103 Advanced Defensive Handgun Skill $299

This intensive 2-day course (minimum 16 hours) continues the development of defensive handgun skills begun in PST 102 — and introduces new techniques.

You will learn to: draw your handgun from concealment with increased speed and accuracy; shoot while moving and turning; engage moving targets; shoot from alternative positions; use cover to protect yourself; engage multiple targets; shoot one-handed; and effectively use index (unsighted) firing. The focus of this class is the mindset, skills, tactics and techniques that are essential in winning a lethal-force confrontation.

Successful completion of this course confers the provisional privilege of:

- Use of the PSTC's Tactical Training (Green) Deck

Prerequisites:

- PST 102 Qualification
- CHL or current background check

Topics covered:

- Firearms safety
- Use of force decision-making
- Speed shooting
- Directional engagements
- Multiple targets
- Position shooting and the use of cover
- Firing on the move
- Moving targets
- One-handed firing
- Index firing
- Post-engagement tactics

Equipment needed:

- Defensive handgun with slide-lock (.380ACP caliber or larger)
- Strong-side, belt-secured, molded or semi-rigid holster and heavy duty belt
- Minimum of 5 magazines or reloading devices and carrier
- Minimum 700 rounds of ammunition
- Wrap-around eye protection
- Muff-style hearing protection
- Overgarment (jacket/sweater)
- Tactical flashlight
