PUBLIC COMMUNICATION

Chair Smith opened the meeting for general public comment.

Kit Stavrum (Oregon City) – Election integrity concerns

Dwight Sims (Wilsonville) – Election integrity concerns

Karen Cook (Oregon City) – Election integrity concerns

Dorothy VonEggers (Wilsonville) – Election integrity concerns

Rita Lynn (Milwaukie) – Election integrity concerns

Nora Timm (Oregon City) – Election integrity concerns

Shelley Timm (Milwaukie) – Election integrity concerns

Don Powers (Sherwood) – Election integrity concerns

Sue Salazar (Oregon City) – Election integrity concerns

Theresa Hamilton (Damascus) – Election integrity concerns

Stephen Hunter (Wilsonville) – Election integrity concerns

J.D. Pavek (Lake Oswego) – Election integrity concerns

Paul Pawlowski (Molalla) – Political violence

Bob Terry (Beaverton) – Election integrity concerns

Jace Neeley (Milwaukie) – Election integrity concerns

David Cadwallader (Milwaukie) (Zoom) – Milwaukie Bay park

Don Hedland (Clackamas County) (Zoom) – Election integrity concerns

The members of the public who shared concerns about election integrity presented a resolution to the Board and requested its adoption. County Counsel advised that public meetings law ORS 192 requires Board actions to be publicly noticed in advance, which had not been done for the presented resolution. Counsel also noted that County standard procedure for resolutions involved staff review and prior Board sessions on the topic.

Commissioner Shull requested the resolution be added as a topic of consideration for the upcoming Administrator Issues and Updates meeting. Commissioner West seconded the request.

After the Commissioners commented on the offered resolution and the general topic of election integrity, Administrator Schmidt skipped his usual update due to time constraints.

COMMISSIONER COMMUNICATION

Commissioner West thanked Brax Laundromats for charity work.

Commissioner Shull commented on the dedication of the new Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Salem and the upcoming general election.

Commissioner Savas shared updates on transportation policy meetings with ODOT and thoughts on commuting patterns.

Commissioner Schrader made comments on the Oregon City old courthouse, new direct flights from PDX to Amsterdam, an Oregon Business event and a potential prosperity initiative.

Chair Smith shared updates on the committee tasked with recommending disposition options for the old Oregon City courthouse.

Chair Smith adjourned the meeting at 12:19 PM
