Prohibits Certain Licensed or Regulated Medical and Recreational Marijuana Facilities Explanatory Statement

The Wilsonville City Council adopted an ordinance prohibiting the establishment of medical marijuana processing sites (including marijuana testing facilities), medical marijuana dispensaries, recreational marijuana producers, processors, wholesalers, and retailers within the city limits.

A majority “yes” vote will affirm the City Council’s ordinance and will continue the ban on medical marijuana processing sites (including marijuana testing facilities), medical marijuana dispensaries, recreational marijuana producers, processors, wholesalers, and retailers within the City limits. To date, no such facilities have been permitted or licensed to operate within Wilsonville.

This measure does not prohibit or restrict medical and personal marijuana use, home cultivation of up to four plants, and the transfer of one ounce of marijuana between individuals, not subject to payment.

The Oregon Medical Marijuana Act, as amended by the Legislature in 2015, provides that a city council may adopt an ordinance prohibiting the establishment of any medical marijuana processing sites, medical marijuana dispensaries, recreational marijuana producers, recreational marijuana wholesalers, and recreational marijuana retailers within city limits, but, if the city council does so, then the city council must refer that ordinance to the voters at the next statewide general election. Wilsonville City Council adopted such an ordinance and that is why this ballot measure is being referred to the voters.

Approval of this measure has revenue impacts. Currently, ten percent of state marijuana tax revenues will be distributed to cities to assist local law enforcement in performing their duties under Measure 91. If approved, this measure would make Wilsonville ineligible to receive distributions of state marijuana tax revenues.

Under the 2015 legislation, a city may impose up to a three percent tax on the sale of marijuana items by a marijuana retailer within the city. However, a city that adopts an ordinance prohibiting the establishment of medical marijuana processors, medical marijuana dispensaries, or recreational marijuana producers, processors, wholesalers, or retailers may not impose a local tax or fee on the production, processing, or sale of marijuana or any product into which marijuana has been incorporated.

A “yes” vote on this measure will continue the current prohibition of medical marijuana processors, medical marijuana dispensaries, recreational marijuana producers, processors, wholesalers, and retailers within the City. A “no” vote will allow those business establishments to locate within Wilsonville, subject to zoning regulations.
