School Waste Reduction Grant Application:
Classroom party kit

School: _____ Application date: _____

Describe your school's proposed project in a few sentences:

School's street address: _____

_____

School district: _____

Applicant's name: _____

Applicant's email address: _____

School principal's name: _____

Principal's email address: _____

Applications are due by April 30 to ensure project completion by the end of the school year.

Has your school received a grant from Clackamas County within the past 2 years? _____

If not, include a completed W-9 form for your school along with your application.

Classroom party kit grant

Classroom parties can create a lot of waste! Schools that switch from disposable items to reusable kits for parties report a drastic reduction in trash.

Approximately how many classroom parties are held each year?

How many teachers/classrooms want a green classroom party kit? (We recommend asking teachers to "opt-in" or request a kit. Otherwise, they may not be used.)

Who will be responsible for washing, drying, and repacking the classroom party kit? (Some schools make this the responsibility of the classroom parent.)

When do you plan to purchase the items and put them into use?

Please itemize the requested products and services. Include suppliers' names, addresses, and phone numbers. Grants are available for amounts up to $500. You may request more than $500 if your project will cost more; however, we may not be able to satisfy the total amount requested.

| Item | Supplier | Website or Phone # | Quantity | Cost |
|---|---|---|---|---|
