RECITALS

1. Clackamas County, through the Justice Reinvestment Grant Program, has a need for services in the community that target marginalized and underserved populations in the community; solve access barriers such as, but not limited to: language, literacy, disability, transportation, and cultural practices; increase capacity for areas where services are difficult to access, limited, or nonexistent; and to provide trauma-informed interventions and services.
2. Culturally specific emergency sheltering services are largely non-existent. In addition, unique challenges exist in finding safe temporary housing for Spanish-language women with limited or no English-language skills. Without access to safe shelter, frequently these families are basically homeless or forced to live in unstable and unsafe arrangements, often returning to their abusive homes and situations. SUBRECIPIENT's Casa Esperanza - House of Hope - Women and Children's Domestic Violence Shelter program (the "Program") was established to address the trauma of poly-victimizations, and multiple inequities of female Latina survivors; and, to instill a sense of hope and trust in their futures. The goal of Casa Esperanza is to comprehensively prepare Latina women who are victims of crime to be self-sufficient so that they can raise their children free from further trauma, re-victimization, fear and harm. As members of a historically under-served population, Latinas and their children, as victims of multiple crimes including domestic violence, exhibit a high level of need for comprehensive, intensively focused services and are offered multiple services during their stay at Casa Esperanza. Services are provided by bi-lingual staff, CASA services, provided primarily in Spanish-language, include short and long-term safety planning and advocacy; case management; mental health crisis intervention, information and referral; therapeutic crime victims support groups; health care coordination, navigation, assistance with establishing a medical home; opportunity for sustainable economic stability, resume and job search coaching and securing employment; assistance in navigating multiple systems; and, transition to stable and affordable housing for low income Latina women and their children who are fleeing an intolerable domestic violence situation and have no other means of support and resources. SUBRECIPIENT extends its comprehensive array of effective services and programs to Casa Esperanza residents to incorporate an integrated, holistic approach to victimization with the understanding that many of the families served have often experienced multi-generational, childhood adulthood, physical and emotional violence, abuse and neglect as well as the other social and economic determinants of physical and emotion wellness. Also as a culturally specific shelter, our women are able to build community and support each other as appropriate. For example, they often share culturally specific healthy meals together or participate in exercise and educational classes offered by SUBRECIPIENT.

3. Funding will support a SUBRECIPIENT's Case Esperanza program.

4. This Grant Agreement of financial assistance sets forth the terms and conditions pursuant to which SUBSUBRECIPIENT agrees on delivery of the Program.

NOW THEREFORE, according to the terms of this local grant agreement ("Agreement") the COUNTY and SUBRECIPIENT agree as follows:
