RE: 2025 Retreat Setting Survey

The C4 Executive Committee is working with staff to organize a 2025 C4 Retreat. These retreats are an important opportunity to meet with colleagues and other local leaders, receive detailed presentations on priority topics, and identify goals and issues that merit additional consideration at future C4 meetings.

On February 12, C4 members, mayors, and city administrators were invited to participate in a brief retreat planning survey to inform the timing and potential topics of the retreat. Twelve unique responses were submitted, including one county staff member.

Date Setting

Survey respondents indicated highest support for a retreat on July 25-26 or August 8-9. On March 9, C4 will be invited to prioritize the two options.

Topics

Survey respondents were invited to share topics of interest for the retreat. The most common responses related to infrastructure funding, transportation, transit, and housing. Other responses related to next steps from the legislative session, tax structures, home rule, unfunded mandates, and commissioner/city relationships. County staff will return at a future meeting to discuss refined topic ideas.

Location

The C4 Retreat is traditionally held at the Mt. Hood Oregon Resort in Welches, OR. Overnight and meal accommodations will be available.
