

Clackamas County Elections – Observing Schedule

Public access to observation areas are open and observers are welcome. We strongly encourage any persons interested in observing to review our Observer Policy and processing schedule prior to arriving. Space may be limited due to safety concerns. All ballot processing/hand counting activities will be conducted at Clackamas County Elections, 1710 Red Soils Ct, Oregon City.

As per the state directive, Clackamas County will be conducting an administrative hand count for President, Judge of the Supreme Court, Position 4, and Measure 108. This directive also specifies which batches/ballots are required to be part of this count. The process will commence at 9:00 a.m. on Friday, November 27th when we open the seals and begin pulling the required batches in preparation for the hand count. The hand counting will start on Monday, November 30th at 8:30 a.m.
