Under Measure 91, adopted by Oregon voters in November 2014 and amended by the Legislature in 2015, the Oregon Liquor Control Commission must license entities to provide for the retail sale of recreational marijuana. The 2015 legislation provides that a city may adopt an ordinance imposing up to a three percent tax on the sale of recreational marijuana items (which include marijuana concentrates, extracts, edibles, and other products intended for human consumption and use) by retail licensees in the city, but the city must refer the tax to the voters at a statewide general election. The City of Happy Valley adopted an ordinance imposing a three percent tax on the sale of recreational marijuana items by a retail licensee in the city. As a result, this measure has been referred to the voters consistent with the requirements of state law.

Approval of this measure would impose a three percent tax, or up to the maximum allowed by state law, on the sale of recreational marijuana items by all licensed marijuana retailers within the city. If approved, the revenues from this tax are estimated to be approximately $30,000 and will go into the City's General Fund.
