

Join the Public Health Advisory Council

Help Improve Public Health in Your Community

Are you interested in guiding public health decisions in Clackamas County? Join the Public Health Advisory Council (PHAC) and become a voice for your community.

The PHAC advises the Public Health Division and Board of County Commissioners on health issues impacting county residents. They are crucial to promoting local health initiatives and connecting the public with these services. Come support policy and system changes that improve the health of communities in our county.

Benefits of joining PHAC include:

- Great networking opportunity.
- Influence Public Health program design and service delivery.
- Provide feedback and input to Public Health Director, program staff, and Board of County Commissioners on budget, policy, and health promotion.
- Connect public health services and resources to the broader community.
- Analyze grant applications and recommend funding awards to ensure that they align with public health goals and standards.

PHAC currently has multiple openings.
