AREA OF STRATEGIC FOCUS

Ensure Safe, Healthy and Secure Communities

Goal: By 2018, 95 percent of County residents will have access to routine health care.

Why this is important:

Those people who access routine health care are far less likely to develop acute, chronic and life-threatening conditions than those who do not. Health insurance coverage is a strong predictor of access to routine care.

How much does the County influence this?

The County has minimally influence on health insurance rates. However, County clinics may serve as a usual source of care for low income individuals and those without insurance. The County also has numerous contracts with behavioral health providers who serve children, families, and adults.

Goal: By 2020, the number of children needing placement in foster care will be reduced by 50 percent.

Why this is important:

A child is placed into foster care as result of abuse, neglect, abandonment, or other factors which render the family unable to care for the child. Reduction in rate of foster care placement indicates strengthening of Clackamas families.

How much does the County influence this?

Moderately. The County has programs which support families in need, and partners with community and state agencies to strengthen families, but does not oversee child welfare and foster care placements.

AREA OF STRATEGIC FOCUS

Ensure Safe, Healthy and Secure Communities

Goal: By 2018, County Health Rankings will show Clackamas County among the three top-ranking counties in the state in at least 90 percent of health measures.

Why this is important:

County Health rankings are based on a model of population health that emphasizes factors that, if improved, can make communities healthier places to live and increase years of life.

How much does the County influence this?

Moderately. Clackamas County develops community health assessments to identify health issues and maintains the Community Health Improvement Plan to address these issues in coordination with community partners.

Goal: By 2019, the number of unsheltered veterans in Clackamas County will be reduced by 50 percent.

Why this is important:

Houseless individuals are at severe risk of harm and disadvantage. Sheltering those who have served their country demonstrates our values of service and respect.

How much does the County influence this?

Significantly. Clackamas County coordinates and funds services to assist homeless individuals in emergency, temporary, supported, and permanent housing.

Note: The chart to the right is based on Point-In-Time (PIT) houseless counts, and represents houseless veterans, not necessarily those who are unsheltered. The estimate of unsheltered veterans was 33 for 2015; previous comparisons are not available. Final 2017 data is expected in late April.

Goal: By 2020, Juvenile Recidivism will be reduced to 17%

Juvenile Recidivism

Why this is important:

Tracking repeat offenders (recidivism) is a core measure of how well juvenile departments are maintaining community safety. Having low recidivism demonstrates success at identifying High Risk youth and providing the most effective interventions.

How much does the County influence this?

Having adequate law enforcement countywide is essential to identifying delinquent youth and our ability to hold them accountable. County funding for evidence based and “best practice” interventions is essential to ensure safe, healthy and secure communities.

Where are we now:

Goal: By 2018, Clackamas County will achieve a Community Rating System (CRS) score for flood safety of 4, resulting in substantial savings in flood insurance premiums for County residents.

Why this is important:

Clackamas County is susceptible to a variety of natural disasters, including floods. An improved CRS score is a sign that the County, its communities, its businesses and residents are better prepared to cope with and recover from this common threat.

How much does the County influence this?

Moderately. Participation in the CRS program requires intensive efforts by the County, other jurisdictions, special service districts and other agencies.

Where are we now:

Clackamas County received an initial CRS rating of 5 in 2004 which it held until the rating was downgraded to 6 in 2012. We underwent a CRS review from March to December 2015. We also engaged a consultant who provided scope and cost information for future work needed to meet this goal. We did not receive funding for this contract and the County's CRS rating dropped to 10 in 2016. Absent funding, this goal is unreachable.

Introduction

Oregon's juvenile justice system is committed to providing effective and efficient services to promote public safety and prevent youth from returning to criminal behavior. The juvenile justice system in Oregon, and around the nation, is focused on improving the equitable treatment for youth of all races and ethnicities who come into contact with the system. An important foundation to understand disparate treatment in the system is to know the Relative Rate Index for a county.

What is Relative Rate Index or RRI?

The Relative Rate Index or RRI is a way to compare experiences of different groups of youth, typically broken down by race or ethnicity, within the juvenile justice system. In the context of this report, youth of color refers to African American, Asian American, Native American, and Hispanic youth. If groups are treated equally, both groups will have an RRI equal to "1". The number is looking at proportional rates, so the groups do not have to be the same in number of occurrence, just the same in rate of occurrence. When the RRI is not equal to "1", one group of youth is receiving different treatment than the other group.

For example:

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) has done extensive work on RRI. For more detailed information, go to OJJDP's National Disproportionate Minority Contact Databook: <https://www.ojjdp.gov/ojstatbb/dmcsdb/>

Contents of this report

This document contains county specific data regarding the Relative Rate Index for youth of color. The RRI is calculated at six different decision points in the juvenile justice system. The six decision points and definitions include:

- Referral to juvenile court: a report to a juvenile department, typically by law enforcement, that alleges a youth has committed an act that if done by an adult would constitute a crime.
- Case diverted from court or formal handling: a case that is handled through informal means, such as a diversion program or sole sanction.
- Use of secure detention: a youth may be held in a county juvenile detention facility, per statute, for pre-adjudication holding, as a sanction for an adjudicated offense, or for a probation violation.
- Case petitioned to court: a referral that is charged in a petition, usually by the county district attorney's office, and is filed with the court.
- Case resulting in secure confinement in a youth correctional facility: a disposition order of an adjudicated petition that results in a youth being placed in a youth correctional facility.
- Case transferred to adult court: a case that is transferred to adult court, either through a waiver process or through an automatic waiver of a Measure 11 charge.

Every county in the state is represented, but not every county has enough instances to adequately report data. Some counties can report an RRI in one area or decision point, but not an RRI in every area or decision point, for the same reason.

The 14 counties that have RRI data to report in 2016 are: Clackamas, Deschutes, Hood River, Jackson, Klamath, Lane, Linn, Malheur, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Umatilla, Washington, and Yamhill.

Notes about the information

Statewide Data: Because RRI needs to be viewed at a county, not state, level to provide the most meaningful data, statewide data is not presented as RRI.

Real Number of Occurrences: The actual number of occurrences are reported for each county for each area and decision point. While there are limitations in reporting the RRI for every category, the JJIS Steering Committee recognizes that all youth from all race and ethnic backgrounds count and should be reported.

Missing Data: When * is seen in the report, it is indicating the numerator in the calculation was 50 or less or the denominator was 5 or less. Therefore, there is not enough data for counties to report out reliable data.

Race and Ethnicity: The JJIS Steering Committee defines Race and Ethnicity reporting categories based on available data. Race is recorded by the juvenile department based on police reports and youths' self-reporting. These reports categorize youth by the race that is recorded in JJIS unless the recorded ethnicity is Hispanic. When the recorded ethnicity is Hispanic, the youth is categorized as Hispanic, regardless of race.

The JJIS Steering Committee respects all races and ethnicities and acknowledges that we cannot accurately represent everyone based on the need to comply with federal reporting standards.

Limitations of the Data

- There is some level of inconsistency in the reporting of Hispanic as a race on referrals by law enforcement, dependent on how race and ethnicity is recorded. Therefore, there is potential for under-reporting of Hispanic youth within the data. For example, some law enforcement agencies may use census guidelines for collecting race. In this case, Hispanic youth are identified as being white or non-white, with Hispanic as a cultural identification rather than race. Other agencies may identify Hispanic as a racial group.
- The Relative Rate Index report can provide the data for actual occurrences and areas of disparate treatment for youth of color in the juvenile justice system in Oregon. This report cannot describe or tell the “why” for the data in any particular county.

At Risk Population (Youth 10-17)

In comparison to white youth contacts with the juvenile justice system, other groups experience contact at the following rates:

	African American	Hispanic	Asian	Native American
Referred to Juvenile Court	2.58	.63	*	*
Cases Diverted	.99	.97	*	*

Cases Transferred to Adult Court	*	*	N/O	N/O

* = Insufficient numbers to provide reliable results

N/O = No occurrences

Data Source: JJIS Report #00471 — Data for Relative Rate Index (RRI) Review (2016)

JJIS Report #00471b — Relative Rate Index Compared to White Juveniles (2016)

The Relative Rate Index (RRI) is a helpful way to compare the experiences of different groups of youth (ages 10-17) within the juvenile justice system. When groups are treated equally, they have an RRI equal to "1". This is true even when one group is larger than another group. When the RRI is not equal to "1", one group is receiving different treatment relative to the other.
