

ADDRESS REQUEST

The County is responsible for assigning addresses within unincorporated areas of Clackamas County. Fees for new addresses are $100 for the first 5 addresses and $50 for each additional address. There is an additional Technology Fee of 3% or $5, whichever is less. First address=$103; Second address=$102; Third, fourth and fifth addresses=$100 each; Additional addresses=$50 each. The County will register new addresses with emergency services, US Postal Service, PGE, Clackamas County Assessor's Office, and Clackamas County GIS. Once assigned, addresses should be visible and legible from the street as required by the Uniform Fire Code. Mailboxes should be located on the designated street according to USPS guidelines. It is the applicants responsibility to notify anyone else.

You must attach a site plan to this request. The site plan must show: a north arrow; all property lines and easements; lot/parcel numbers; all existing and proposed structures with labels and dimensions; setback distances of structures from property lines and easements; the structure to be assigned an address; and all driveways and parking areas. A sample site plan is available HERE.
