As someone with a strong sense of defending others and an extensive background in law enforcement, I have dedicated my career to ensuring the safety of our community. My unwavering determination to hold wrongdoers accountable, coupled with my entrepreneurial spirit and commitment to public service, drive me to run for the position of Clackamas County Sheriff, aiming to protect and empower the residents of our county.

Put bad guys where they belong - In jail!

The escalating crime rate and homelessness crisis in Clackamas County demand immediate attention and decisive action. Now more than ever, we need a Sheriff who will confront these challenges head-on, implementing effective strategies, collaborating with community partners, and prioritizing the well-being of all residents.

Clackamas County should lead the way in safe communities!

The decline of the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office under the current leadership is a pressing issue that demands urgent resolution. We must elect a sheriff who will restore pride and professionalism within the department, enhancing community safety and setting a standard of excellence.

Prioritize a responsible and transparent budget that gets the job done!

The proposed cuts to frontline positions by the current sheriff are unacceptable. We need to prioritize resources through a transparent budget, adequately funding positions to ensure community safety. Together, let's demand a budget that effectively addresses our public safety needs.

Let's protect Clackamas County!
