Adult in Custody Video Visitation

The Clackamas County Jail's top priority is the safety and security of everyone in the facility.

Citizens can register online at www.gettingout.com to set up a visitation account. From the website you can schedule visits or utilize the Visit Now function to visit with an adult in custody when convenient. Visits will only be able to take place during established visiting hours.

This new system of visitation will give citizens more opportunity for visiting loved ones and friends who are in jail.

The Clackamas County Jail Video Visitation is open seven days a week.

Staff on duty are expected to adhere to policy as are all visitors. Please do not ask staff to make exceptions in the enforcement of this policy.

Adult in custody visiting is based on classification and housing assignment. Individuals in disciplinary segregation are not allowed visitors. Below is the visiting schedule.

The Jail reserves the right to cancel visiting at any time. There are those occurrences when the adult in custody is not available for visiting (i.e. medical appointment, court, technical difficulties, etc.). In these instances the visitor will be told that the adult in custody is unavailable for visiting. The jail is not responsible for rescheduling visits.
