FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

Question 1:

Could Parenting Inside Out be an acceptable curriculum to apply for these funds with?

- Yes

Parenting Inside Out does span the ages of infancy – early adulthood, so which category would we list Parenting Inside Out under if it was an acceptable curriculum?

- You may use PIO to facilitate a program targeting either age range population. Your proposal should include with age range you plan to target/intend to serve with the funding proposal. Proposals must specify an early childhood (birth to 6) or older age (10-16) targeted population.

Question 2:

Could Stay Connected with your teen be an acceptable curriculum to apply for these funds with?

- Yes

Question 3:

Is there an Excel version of the budget spreadsheet to be included in the upcoming OPEC grant application?

- The application is in a fillable PDF format. You should be able to enter the budget directly into the application or you can submit a budget in an alternative format of your own.

Question 4:

Do we need to submit a budget for each county or one for both. It would be the same curricula for each county.

- You need to submit a budget for each county

Question 5: Where do I find the approved list of Virtual parenting class programs that are allowed using distance approved evidence-based curriculum?

- If an organization is intentionally planning to use distance learning as their format for parenting education, they need to use a curriculum that was published with virtual education as the intent. Visiting curriculum publisher websites will be the best way to see if each program has developed an approved virtual delivery method. The list of programs that have approved virtual formats is likely updating constantly due to Covid-19 recommendations, organizations should do their own research to find the most current update for any program. Previously or commonly used virtual programs include Active Parenting Now, Triple P (Positive Parenting Program), and Parenting Wisely.

Question 6: Is there a Word-application document available?

- If you need the application in a Word document, please contact Stephanie Radford (sradford@clackamas.us)
