- a. Qualification; Application; Inspection. When an owner has more than one dog, the owner may obtain or renew a multiple dog license after submitting a completed, qualifying Multiple Dog License Application and after either 1) submitting an inspection certification from a veterinarian licensed in the state of Oregon; or 2) a County inspection of the applicant's premises to determine that the owner is in compliance with minimum care standards as provided by this chapter.

  - iv. At any reasonable time, an on-site investigation of the premises may be conducted to determine whether the animal rescue entity is in compliance with this section.
  - v. An on-site investigation if a credible and serious complaint has been received that the animal rescue entity has failed to comply with the requirements of this section. The investigation shall be limited to determining if the animal rescue entity has failed to comply with the requirements of this chapter.

  - f. Violations. A violation of any provision in this section may be prosecuted by the enforcing agency, as provided by section 5.01.070 of this chapter, and may result in the imposition of fines and civil penalties, or other restrictions or remedies as provided in this chapter.

      - v. Payment of an annual dangerous dog registration fee.
    - b. Secure Enclosure. The owner of a dog classified as dangerous shall confine the dog in a secure enclosure. The owner must immediately notify Dog Services when a dangerous dog is at large, or has bitten a person, domestic animal or livestock. A dangerous dog shall not be permitted to leave the confines of a secure enclosure unless the dog is muzzled and restrained by an adequate chain or leash and under control of a competent person.
    - c. Notice to New Owner. Prior to a dangerous dog being sold or given away. The owner shall provide notice to the new owner that the dog has been classified as a dangerous dog and provide the County with the name, address and telephone number of the new owner whether or not the new owner resides in Clackamas County. If the new owner resides in Clackamas County, they must comply with all dangerous dog regulations imposed unless and until the dog is declassified or dies.
  5. Declassification of Dangerous Dog.
    - a. Declassification. Following an owner's written request, the County may declassify a dog as dangerous and terminate the regulations ordered at the time of classification, except for microchip identification and secure enclosure, when the following conditions have been met:

A. Impoundment

1. Any Dog Services Officer or peace officer may impound an animal that is in violation of this chapter, or when a Dog Services Officer or peace officer reasonably believes the animal requires medical assistance or care, or when ordered by a court or Hearings Officer.
2. If a person refuses to allow a Dog Services Officer or peace officer to enter the premises to apprehend and impound an animal as authorized by this chapter, the County may request the assistance of the local law enforcement official to obtain and execute a search warrant as authorized by law to search for and seize the animal subject to impound.
3. Any Dog Services Officer or peace officer is authorized to remove the animal from a motor vehicle to apprehend and impound the animal when the officer reasonably believes it is confined in a manner that endangers its health or well-being, including but not limited to dangerous temperature, lack of food, water or attention. A written notice of impoundment will be left on or in the vehicle with information on how to reclaim the animal.
4. Any person may immediately apprehend and hold for impoundment any animal that has trespassed upon the property of that person or another in violation of this chapter, or has menaced, bitten, injured or killed a person, domestic animal, or livestock.
5. Animals other than dogs that are seized by Dog Services Officers will be taken to facilities that are appropriate for the holding or keeping of those animals. Release of such animals will be subject to State law as well as any rules or procedures for the facility where the animal is being kept.

- B. Impound Holding Periods. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter or reclaimed sooner by the owner, dogs that have been impounded will be held for the following minimum time periods:

1. Dogs not wearing a license tag shall be held for at least three consecutive business days, not including the day of impoundment.
  2. Dogs wearing a license tag shall be held for at least five consecutive business days, from the date of notification of impoundment. If notification is by mail, the date of mailing shall be considered the date of notification.
- C. Release of Animals Impounded at County Dog Shelter; Conditional Release.
1. Release.
    - a. Release Prohibited. Unless otherwise ordered by a Hearings Officer or court of competent jurisdiction, an impounded dog may not be released until final disposition of any violation alleging that the dog has killed a person, or when a dog is pending classification or has been classified as a dangerous dog.
    - b. Release Permitted. Unless prohibited by this chapter prior to final disposition of a violation or pending appeal, an impounded animal may be released subject to release conditions in subsection 5.01.060(C)(2)(a) and upon posting security in the amount equal to 50% of the base fine for each violation and payment of fees and costs owed to date including prior outstanding balances, except upon showing of good cause.
  2. Conditional Release.
    - a. Conditions. As permitted by this chapter pending final disposition of a violation or appeal, the County or Hearings Officer may conditionally release an impounded animal to its owner and may impose any of the following release conditions, including but not limited to a requirement that the animal owner:

      - ii. Provide proof of license within a designated time, if applicable;
      - iii. Restrain the dog on the dog owner's property by means of a secure enclosure;
      - iv. If the animal is a dog, control the dog on a leash that is no longer than six (6) feet, and at all times handled by an adult who is able to control the dog;

      - vi. Obtain veterinary care for the animal within a designated time;
      - vii. Comply with minimum care standards consistent with this chapter;
      - viii. Keep the animal indoors during certain hours.
    - b. Revocation of Conditional Release; Violation; Security Forfeited.
      - i. Revocation. Upon reasonable ground to believe that a release condition has been violated, the County may revoke release, and apprehend and impound the subject animal pending final disposition of the underlying violation or appeal.
      - ii. Violation. At the time of revocation the animal owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities shall be cited for failure to follow condition(s) of release. A hearing on revocation may be made in accordance with section 5.01.070 of this chapter and consolidated with a hearing on the underlying violation(s).

- iii. Security Forfeited. The security amount posted on conditional release shall be forfeited upon a finding that one or more conditions of release were violated or if no timely hearing is requested.
    - 3. If a dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities, has been cited for a violation(s) of this chapter, and a Hearings Officer finds that no violation(s) occurred, then impoundment and board fees shall not be assessed until the first business day after notice of the Hearings Officer's Final Order.
    - 4. An owner must reclaim an animal within five (5) business days after notice of a Hearings Officer's Final Order unless otherwise ordered or unless stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction.
  - D. Failure to Reclaim.
    - 1. If an owner fails to reclaim an animal as provided in this chapter, the animal will be deemed abandoned and shall become the property of the County without compensation paid to the owner.
    - 2. An owner that fails to reclaim an animal will be civilly liable to the County for all penalties, fines, fees, costs and expenses authorized by this chapter, which may be collected in the same manner as any other debt allowed by law.
  - E. Diseased or Injured Animal. A dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities shall be liable to the County for costs paid for medical treatment during impoundment. If the County determines an animal is seriously injured or seriously ill or its health condition causes a threat to public health or safety, the animal may be immediately euthanized without compensation paid to the owner.
  - F. Release for Adoption.
    - 1. Fees. Adoption fees will be assessed consistent with this chapter.
    - 2. Standards. The Dog Services Manager shall have the authority to develop and enforce adoption policies and procedures.

5.01.070 Citation; Complaint; Hearing Process

- A. Issuance of Citation.
    - 1. Any Dog Services Officer or peace officer may issue and serve a dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities with a citation when there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this chapter has occurred. The citation shall serve as the County's complaint and may include a fine that is payable to Clackamas County.
    - 2. A citation shall be served by personal service or by certified mail with return receipt requested, no later than six (6) months from the date the alleged violation occurred. When mailed the date of mailing shall be considered the date of service. The failure of any person to receive notice properly given shall not invalidate or otherwise affect proceedings under this chapter.
  - B. Inspection and Investigation. In determining whether to issue a citation, a Dog Services Officer may request entry onto any real property in order to investigate a suspected violation of this chapter.
  - C. Form of Citation.
    - 1. The citation shall include:

- a. The name and address of the person cited;
  - b. The date(s) the alleged violation(s) occurred;
  - c. The number and title of the chapter section(s) violated;
  - d. A description of the animal(s) involved;
  - e. The base fine, to be equal to the minimum fine, along with the maximum fine for each violation as authorized by this chapter;
  - f. A statement providing notice of the penalties that could be imposed by the Hearings Officer, including penalties and keeping restrictions provided in Section 5.01.080 of this chapter.
  - g. Whether appearance before a Hearings Officer is optional, or if mandatory, the date, time and place at which the person is to appear;
  - h. The procedure for the person to follow to admit the violation and pay the fine or to contest the citation and appear before a Hearings Officer;
  - i. A statement that if the person fails to pay the fine within the time allowed, or fails to appear before the Hearings Officer when required, the person shall have waived their right to contest the citation and the Hearings Officer may enter a judgment against the person for an amount up to the maximum fine, in addition to any fees, costs or expenses, conditions or restrictions authorized by this chapter;
  - j. A statement that when appearance before a Hearings Officer is mandatory the person cannot pay the fine in lieu of appearance.
2. An error in transcribing information into a citation, when determined by the Hearings Officer to be non-prejudicial to the defense of the cited person, may be corrected prior to or at the time of the hearing with notice to the cited person. Except as provided in this subsection, a citation that does not conform to the requirements of this section shall be set aside by the Hearings Officer upon motion of the cited person before any other proceedings at the hearing. Minor variations in the form of citation shall not be a basis for setting aside a citation. Nothing prohibits the Hearings Officer from amending a citation in the Hearings Officer's discretion.
- C. Response to Citation
1. Unless an appearance before a Hearings Officer is mandatory, a dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities who has received a citation may respond by:
    - a. Appearing personally before the Hearings Officer on the cited appearance date and either admit or deny the violation; or
    - b. Prior to the appearance date return a signed copy of the citation to Dog Services admitting the violation, along with a check or money order payable to Clackamas County for the total base fine amount. Admission and payment does not relieve the dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities of the requirement to correct the violation; or
    - c. Prior to the appearance date, return a signed copy of the citation to Dog Services denying the violation and requesting a hearing. Dog Services will set a time and place for the hearing and notify the Hearings Officer, and the dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities.
  2. Mandatory Appearance. Personal appearance before a Hearings Officer at the time and place indicated on the citation shall be mandatory:

- a. When a dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities has received a citation three (3) times or more within a twelve (12) month period or the issuing officer has determined the appearance should be mandatory;
  - b. For violation of Failure to Surrender an Animal;
  - c. For violation of Interfering with a County employee or Peace Officer;
  - d. For violation of Providing False Information to a County employee or Peace Officer;
  - e. For violation of Failure to Comply with Conditions of Quarantine;
  - f. For violation of Failure to Comply with any Fine, Fee, Cost, Expense, Condition or Restriction authorized by this chapter;
  - g. For violation of Dog as a Public Nuisance when a dog kills a person, domestic animal or livestock;
  - h. For violation of Failure to Comply with the Requirements of Keeping a Dangerous Dog.
  - i. For failure to reclaim an impounded animal.
  - j. For failure to meet minimum care standards.
3. Failure to Respond to Citation. If a person cited fails to respond to a citation as required by this chapter, then the person shall be deemed to have waived their right to contest the citation. Following proof of sufficient evidence that the person has committed the cited violation(s), the Hearings Officer may enter a Final Order against the person for an amount up to the maximum fine, in addition to any applicable fees, costs or expenses, and any other imposition consistent with this chapter. A copy of the Final Order shall be sent to the person cited by regular mail.
- D. Hearing Process.
1. Informal Disposition. The County and the dog owner, or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities may agree to an informal and final disposition of any violation before a Hearings Officer issues a Final Order.
  2. Burden of Proof. The burden will be on the County to prove that the violation occurred by a preponderance of the evidence.
  3. Testimony of Witnesses and Parties. The Hearings Officer shall have the authority to administer oaths or affirmations and take testimony of and question witnesses and parties. Parties may offer witness testimony on their own behalf. Written testimony must be submitted by sworn affidavit and may be admitted into the record subject to exclusion by the Hearings Officer and objections by the opposing party.
  4. Cross-Examination of Witnesses. The person cited and attorneys may examine or cross-examine witnesses.
  5. Evidence. Reliable and relevant evidence shall be admitted subject to the rules of privilege recognized by law. Records developed, kept and maintained, during the normal course of business, including but not limited to, law enforcement reports and veterinary records, shall be admissible provided the party offering the records establishes the authenticity of the records through written or oral testimony. The burden of presenting evidence to support a fact or position shall be on the offering party. The Hearings Officer may establish procedures for the presentation of evidence to ensure that the hearing record reflects a full and fair inquiry into the facts necessary to determine the matter alleged. The Hearings

- Officer shall have the discretion to exclude any material or testimony that is accumulative, repetitious, irrelevant or immaterial.
6. Objections. Objections to admission of evidence shall be noted in the record and will be considered with respect to the weight to be given the particular evidence offered. The Hearings Officer shall have the discretion to admit or exclude any evidence presented and may reserve the ruling on the admissibility or exclusion of evidence until the time the Final Order is issued.
  7. Subpoenas. The Hearings Officer may issue subpoenas to parties when a request is supported by a showing of general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought. Witnesses appearing pursuant to subpoena, other than the parties, peace officers or employees of the County, shall be paid the same witness fees and mileage as allowed in civil cases from the party requesting the subpoena to be paid at the time the subpoena is issued. The party requesting the subpoena will be responsible for its service in accordance with the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure.
  8. Representation. The person cited may represent themselves or may be represented by counsel at personal expense. The County may be represented at the hearing by any employee of the County. If the employee is not an attorney, the employee shall not present legal argument, examine or cross-examine witnesses, present rebuttal evidence or give legal advice to the Hearings Officer conducting the hearing.
  9. Record. A verbatim record shall be made of all hearings. The record may be transcribed at the request of a party upon payment in advance of the cost of transcription.
  10. Final Order. At the conclusion of the hearing, the Hearings Officer shall issue a Final Order based upon reliable, relevant and substantial evidence which shall be the County's final determination. A Final Order shall be effective on the date that it is issued unless otherwise provided by the Hearings Officer. The order may be oral or written, but in all cases must be recorded in the record of the proceeding. The Hearings Officer may impose fines, fees, costs, expenses, conditions or restrictions and any other imposition authorized by this Chapter. Monetary obligations are due and payable on the effective date of the Final Order unless otherwise provided.
  11. Judicial Review. Review of a Final Order of the Hearings Officer may be made by any party by writ of review as provided in ORS 34.010-34.100. Notwithstanding ORS 34.030, if the Final Order of the Hearings Officer provides the dog is to be euthanized, a writ of review must be filed no later than the 10th day after service of the order. The order to euthanize a dog may not be carried out during the period that the order is subject to review or appeal, unless:
    - a. A person appealing the Hearings Officer order, or a person with the right to appeal the order, fails to maintain advance payment of the costs of keeping the dog in the shelter during the period; or
    - b. The County files a motion in the Court where the appeal is filed and demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that (1) the dog cannot be safely released from the shelter because it presents a risk of causing physical injury to a person or another animal; (2) it is not humane or in the best interest of the dog to remain confined in the shelter; and (3) the County shows a reasonable likelihood of success on the appeal.

12. Enforcement of Final Order. The County may maintain civil proceedings in law or equity in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any provision of a Hearings Officer's Final Order.
- F. Process when Citation is for Dog as Continuous Annoyance. When the County receives a complaint of a dog causing a continuous annoyance, all of the procedures in this chapter shall apply and the following additional procedures shall also be required:
1. First Complaint. The county will not investigate or issue a citation, but will provide assistance to the complainant and the dog owner to help them resolve the issue between themselves.
  2. Second Complaint. The complainant and the dog owner will be referred to mandatory mediation:
    - a. If the complainant fails to participate in mediation, no citation will be issued to the owner, the county will not investigate the complaint and not further complaints will be considered until and unless the complainant participates in mediation.
    - b. If the owner fails to participate in mediation, the county may conduct further investigation into the complaint, may issue a citation and may take other steps that it determines are reasonable in the circumstances.
  3. Complaints Following Mediation Where All Parties Have Participated. If mediation is conducted wherein both the owner and complainant participate, upon receipt of further complaints the County may conduct further investigation into the complaint, may issue a citation and may take other steps that it determines are reasonable in the circumstances.
  4. After Citation Issued. After a citation is issued by the County, all standard procedures and provisions in this chapter shall apply.

5.01.080 Penalties

- A. Fines, Fees, Costs; Expenses.
1. Upon a finding that the dog owner or the owners, operators or managers of animal rescue entities has violated this chapter, a Hearings Officer may impose fines, fees, costs and expenses, which shall become a debt owing to Clackamas County and may be collected in the same manner as any other debt allowed by law. If fines, fees, costs or expenses are not paid within sixty (60) days after payment is ordered, the County may file and record the Final Order for payment in the County Clerk Lien Record as authorized by ORS 30.460.

- a. Suspend the owner's right to own or keep any animal in Clackamas County for a period not to exceed five (5) years;

  - d. Require the owner to remove the animal to a location where the animal does not present a threat to persons, domestic animals or livestock;
  - e. Require the owner to surrender the animal to the County;
  - f. After consideration of the factors set forth in ORS 609.093, require euthanasia when an animal has bitten or killed a person, domestic animal or livestock.   - g. Require that the owner comply with any other condition or restriction reasonably designed to abate any future violation of this chapter;
  - h. Require that the owner obtain microchip identification for the animal;
  - i. Require the owner to reduce the number of animals on the owner's premises.
2. Any condition or restriction imposed by a Hearings Officer must be complied with immediately unless otherwise ordered. The County may request that an owner provide proof of compliance by a date certain. If proof is not provided, or proof is insufficient, then a rebuttable presumption will exist that the owner has failed to comply and the owner may be cited for the violation of Failure to Comply in accordance with this chapter.
  3. An owner shall be responsible for all costs incurred in complying with any condition or restriction imposed.
  4. Upon a finding that an owner is guilty of a violation set forth in this chapter, regarding the same animal for the third time in a twelve (12) month period, the Hearings Officer may order that the owner surrender the animal to the County, without compensation paid to the owner.
  5. When an animal has been ordered surrendered and the County has determined that the animal qualifies for adoption, the County may give placement preference to any person who had prior contact with the animal, including but not limited to the former owner's family members or friends who reside separately from the former owner and whom the County has determined will provide adequate care and follow all conditions or restrictions imposed by the Hearings Officer in order to maintain control of the animal.
