Your VOICE in Clackamas County

I'm a grassroots candidate, and my mission is simple: to deliver results. I'll prioritize transparency in how your tax dollars are spent, support small businesses, and ensure everyone has an equal and equitable shot at success.

"Rae has an impressive set of skills, knowledge, and abilities that give her a strong foundation to sit on the County Commission." - William Becker, Community Leader

Local Expertise: With over 10 years working in CC, I have visited every corner of this county, and understand the unique needs of both rural and urban communities.

"Rae's nearly two decades of service in Clackamas County has proven her commitment to giving a voice to others and has shown her capacity to lead with compassion and integrity." - Sherry Morisch, PDX Progressive Radio

People Before Policies: A commissioner should partner with their community when creating policies. I will respect our community and prioritize early community involvement.

"Rae will serve the County and its populace with honesty, thoughtful choices, and intelligent pursuit toward bettering County services." - Marc Gonzales, Retired Clackamas County Finance Director

Community-Driven: While others may be swayed by special interests and party politics, I'm here solely to serve you—the people of our community.

Priorities:

- Houselessness: Develop multi-prong approach including wrap-around health, substance treatment, and family mediation services.
- Public Safety: Ensure safe communities for all with prompt response, partnerships, and accountability
- Mental Health: Strengthen access to mental health resources.
