County of Clackamas

Reporting Absences

It feels good to be prepared. That's why we've developed the following guide to help you report an absence with Standard Insurance Company (The Standard+). Follow the steps outlined below if you become disabled or need to file for a leave of absence from work. This will enable you to access our Absence Management Service Center online or by phone.

When should I report an absence?

Contact The Standard if you are or will be absent from work for any of the following reasons:

- Your own serious health condition (including pregnancy)
- To care for your newborn child
- The placement of your adopted or foster child
- To provide care for a qualifying family member with a serious health condition
- To care for a covered service member injured in the line of duty
- For qualifying military need, allowing family members to take leave to prepare for or deal with issues that arise as a result of a family member being called to serve in the military
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) services
- Paid Family and Medical Leave — applies if you work in Oregon state

For all other absences, please follow the normal County of Clackamas absence reporting procedures and notify your manager.

How do I notify The Standard about an absence?

leave

Managing Your Leave of Absence Frequently Asked Questions

Who is responsible for notifying County of Clackamas about my absence?

It's your responsibility to follow the normal County of Clackamas absence reporting procedures and notify your department head or manager of your absence.

Will I receive any notification after I initiate a leave or claim?

After you start a request for time off under Family Medical Leave, The Standard will send you a letter confirming receipt of your leave request. You will also receive a Certification of Health Care Provider form to be completed by your or your family member's health care provider. This form should be returned to The Standard by the due date indicated in your letter.

How do I report an intermittent absence?

When you miss time associated with an intermittent leave, you can quickly and easily report absences through The Standard's self-service phone system or the absence management self-service portal. These services are available anytime.

Follow these steps to use the self-service phone system:

- Say "Report an absence" when prompted and you can report your time off without needing to speak to a representative.
- Provide the following information:
  - Your leave number, which you can find on the correspondence we sent after we approved your intermittent leave
  - Your date of birth
  - The date of the absence

Note: You may report multiple absences during one call. Dates can be today, or in the past or future. However, each absence will be a separate entry during the same call.

Note: To request changes to any previously reported dates, please reach out to the Absence Management Service Center at 866.756.8116.
  - The type of absence

Note: You'll need to let the system know if your absence relates to your condition or is to attend a medical appointment.
  - The number of hours you were scheduled to work, and the number of hours of leave taken for each day you're reporting
  - A phone number where we can reach you in case we need to contact you for further information
- Once the automated intake is complete, you'll receive a confirmation number to let you know that your absence report has been successfully submitted

Where do I send the completed forms?

If you're required to submit paperwork, please send the completed forms to:

Standard Insurance Company
Employee Benefits Division
PO Box 3877
Portland, OR 97208

You can also fax completed forms to 866.751.5174 or email them to absence@standard.com.
