BACKGROUND:

The Children, Family & Community Connections Division (CFCC) of the Health, Housing and Human Services Department requests approval of a Federal Subrecipient Amendment #2 with Clackamas Women’s Services for continuation of ICJR program services. ICJR funding provides legal advocacy for culturally-specific domestic violence survivors, comprehensive training to law enforcement, prosecutors, and other professionals, enhances the response to protective order petitioners at A Safe Place Family Justice Center, and provides vital language interpretation and transition to survivors of violence as part of a collaborative project. This amendment extends the duration of the Agreement to allow for additional time to provide service delivery impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic that resulted in various positions being unfilled during portions of the project period. The project extension was cleared by the funder (Office on Violence Against Women) on 7/22/22.
