

Clackamas County Climate Action Plan

Implementation Guide Phase Workshop -

Adaptation & Consumption Based Emissions

Climate Action Task Force // September 29th, 2022 // 1:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Agenda

Location:	Zoom - link provided via email
Facilitator:	Naomi Devine, Director of Engagement & Senior Consultant, SSG
Facilitation support:	Kiana Bonnick, Consultant, SSG
Technical experts:	Brittany MacLean, Lead Analyst & Senior Consultant, SSG Chris Strashok, Lead Modeler & Senior Consultant, SSG
Attendees:	Climate Action Task Force members County project team

Meeting Objectives

- To receive CATF members' feedback on:
  - Adaptation and consumption-based emissions
- To involve CATF members in:
  - outlining and understanding community values and aspirations for readiness to implement the climate action plan
  - To reconvene CATF members, review operating values, and project narrative.

Meeting Flow

- 1. Welcome & Introductions – 10 min
- 2. Agenda Review – 5 min
  - Review operating values
- 3. Evaluations from Last Meeting – 5 min
- 4. Review of Questions from Pre-reads Email – 15 min
  - What questions do you have for us at this point in the project?
- 5. Project Narrative – 10 min
  - How CATF and public participation has shaped the project
  - What is coming and the opportunities to shape the outcome
  - Level set about: the role of modeled and independent actions

6. Presentation & Q+A on Adaptation – 30 min
  - Opportunity for Q+A and feedback
    - i. What risks and vulnerabilities do you see in the identified hazard for Clackamas County?
    - ii. Input on actions needed to address these hazards
7. Presentation & Q+A on Consumption Based Emissions – 30 min
  - Opportunity for Q+A and feedback
    - i. How do you think consumption-based emissions can best be reduced in Clackamas County?
    - ii. Who can play a lead role in reducing consumption-based emissions?
8. Next Steps + Session Evaluation – 10 min