	nool	Mea Safe Initia	ety	C	alth are atives		Community Initiatives
Increase student awareness of what to do and when (1, 2)	Increase school and district awareness and involvement (I)	Continue to make available at no cost items that assist with reducing access to lethal means (1)	Increase firearm cultural competence for individuals such as MH providers and others who are not part of the gun community (2)	Increase support groups	Increase awareness about peer support	Cet youth trained in suicide prevention and how to identify signs and symptoms (1)	Leverage existing relationships (groups, list serves, media, etc.) in the community to promote safe messaging and CLAS standards (2)	Messaging should reflect demographics of the community – one size does not fit all (2)
Get youth involved and trained (1, 2)	Improve safe transitions from hospital to home (1, 2)	Increase awareness about access to these items and why using them can saves lives (1)	Engage the firearm community in this work by learning from them, hearing them, not telling them what do – let them lead (2)	Increase awareness of risk factors	Increase registration of health care providers in these trainings	Increase trainer capacity and sustainability plan for the County (1)	Make information accessible to all (2)	Get youth trained in these principles (3)
Work with ODE to hold districts accountable for Adi's Act (1)	Increase upstream prevention strategies (universal screening; curriculum that includes MH and suicide) (1, 2)	Collaborate with community partners such as LEA, MH and SP training partners (to announce availability about items during training) and prescribers to increase awareness and distribute items. (I)	Explore ways to get this work supported and funded (2)	Increase awareness of trainings	Leverage and collaborate with existing providers to increase screening and peer supports	Offer trainings other than standard "suicide prevention" or "MH awareness" that promote connection/resiliency/ help seeking (I)	Increase awareness of availability of resources (2)	Leverage existing groups, list serves, media, etc. to serve as distribution "brokers" of messaging (3)
Increase parent awareness about warning signs and other areas of suicide prevention, intervention, postvention and how to navigate help (1, 2)			Increase awareness and availability of suicide prevention trainings within the firearm community (2)		Targeted outreach about trainings to parents/natural supports and others (1)	Make trainings accessible to all of Clackamas County (1)	Increase feeling of connection in our community (2)	Offer training about safe messaging and CLAS standards to organizations (3)