The Community Health Division of Health, Housing and Human Services requests approval of a Proclamation declaring the Week of April 5, 2010 as Public Health Week. Public Health Week is an annual, national recognition of the importance of Public Health in promoting health and preventing disease in populations.

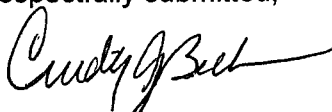

Public Health performs ongoing services in Clackamas County, including prenatal and child home visiting programs, the WIC nutrition education and support, and health education to encourage healthy choices and decrease the availability and use of tobacco products. We are currently completing a community assessment and community engagement project called Roadmap to Healthy Communities.

Public Health also focuses on protection of the health of our county residents, through conducting surveillance and investigation of communicable diseases, inspecting and licensing food service and water systems, responding to outbreaks such as the recent H1N1 pandemic, and working with county staff to plan and train for an effective response to other emergency events.

Recommendation:

We recommend the approval of this proclamation and that the Board of County Commissioners join in signing it.

Members of the Board;

Proclamation declaring April as Child Abuse Prevention Month in Clackamas County for 2010

The Children, Youth & Families Division of the Clackamas County Health, Housing & Human Services Department requests the approval of a Proclamation declaring April as Child Abuse Prevention Month. This important month has traditionally been recognized both nationally and locally by the Clackamas County Board of County Commissioners through a Proclamation. Some of the highlights in the proclamation point out the following:

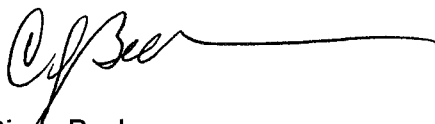

In 2009 the abuse rate was 6.7 per 1,000 children; state wide the rate is 12.5. The 6.7 constitutes 601 children in 2009 that were confirmed as being abused. Child abuse and neglect is preventable, yet each year in the United States, close to one million children are confirmed victims of child maltreatment. Based on data drawn from a variety of sources, the conservative estimated annual cost of child abuse and neglect is $750 million. It is expected that with increased economic stress and hardship child abuse and neglect will increase.

Since 2002 the Clackamas County Early Childhood Committee, a sub-committee of the Clackamas County Commission on Children and Families, has coordinated events and developed child abuse prevention information that is targeted at supporting parents, teachers, children and youth, and the community. The Proclamation highlights programs that actively supports and develops best practice programs and initiatives that work towards preventing child abuse and those adverse outcomes that occur as a result of child abuse and neglect.

Recommendation:

Staff recommends the Board approve the attached Child Abuse Prevention Month Proclamation.

Respectfully submitted,

Cindy Becker
Director

PROCLAMATION TO PROCLAIM THE MONTH OF APRIL 2010 AS NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH FOR CLACKAMAS COUNTY

Whereas, preventing child abuse and neglect is a community problem that depends on involvement among people throughout the community;

Whereas, data indicate a steady level of child abuse and neglect each year. In 2009, there were 12.5 victims per 1000 children with founded incidents of child abuse and neglect in the state of Oregon. For Clackamas County, child abuse remained steady at 6.7 per 1000 children in 2009. Whether suffering neglect, harsh physical punishment, threat of harm, sexual abuse, or psychological trauma, the children who survive carry the scars of their abuse for the rest of their lives

Whereas, research shows, child abuse and neglect not only directly harm children, but also increase the likelihood of criminal behavior, substance abuse, health problems such as heart disease and obesity, and risky behavior such as smoking;

Whereas, we know, child maltreatment occurs when people find themselves in stressful situations, without community resources, and don't know how to cope;

Whereas, the majority of child abuse cases stems from situations and conditions that are preventable in an engaged and supportive community;

Whereas, child abuse and neglect can be reduced by making sure each family has the support they need to raise their children in a healthy environment;

To improve our future, all citizens should become involved in supporting families in raising their children in a safe, nurturing environment;

To this end, effective child abuse prevention programs succeed because of partnerships created among social service agencies, schools, faith communities, civic organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the business community. Successful programs and initiatives in Clackamas County include:

- Clackamas Branch – Oregon Child Protective Services
- Healthy Start of Clackamas County which is a home visitation program for first time parents.
- The Children's Center which supports and conducts medical assessments of children who are suspected victims of abuse or neglect.
- The Clackamas County Multi-Disciplinary Team which includes representatives from the Sheriff's Office, District Attorney, Victim's Assistance, Oregon Department of Human Services and County agencies.
- Clackamas County Sheriff's Office Child Abuse and Domestic Violence Summit.
- The Family Education and Support Network parent resource web-page.
- The establishment of the Homeless Children's strategic planning and implementation committee.
- Family Stepping Stones Relief Nursery.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Clackamas County Board of County Commissioners do hereby proclaim the month of April, 2010 as:

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

We call upon all Clackamas County citizens to observe this month and every day by demonstrating our gratitude to those who work to keep our children safe, and by taking action in our own communities to make them healthy places where children can grow and thrive.

Dated this 1st day of April, 2010.

Board Order Declaring the Formation of The Hamlet of Molalla Prairie

The Hamlet and Village program was created by the Board of County Commissioners (BCC) in 2006, as the result of a two-year community involvement process called Complete Communities. This program allows unincorporated communities to have closer connections and better communication with the BCC and County departments.

The proposed Hamlet of Molalla Prairie has completed the required organizational steps, and is now ready for formal Board of County Commissioners approval of its Board of Directors and bylaws. The bylaws include details on the hamlet's purpose, activities and boundary.

The bylaws were approved by a vote of 75 yes, 60 no, and one provisional ballot declared invalid, at a Town Hall meeting March 10, 2010. Please find the following documents attached.

- The bylaws of the Hamlet of Molalla Prairie
- Boundary map for the Hamlet of Molalla Prairie. The boundary includes a majority of the Molalla CPO, the eastern half of the dormant South Canby CPO and a crescent in the north portion of the South Clackamas CPO. South Clackamas CPO approved the inclusion of this section of the CPO since it was not withdrawn from the CPO, but is an overlay of that portion.

In June 2009 a group of interested rural Molalla citizens, headed by Chief Petitioner Carine Goldin, contacted Clackamas County Staff Liaison to investigate the process for creation of a hamlet to represent rural Molalla. As of mid-August they decided to pursue hamlet status. A formation committee of eight members was formed to guide the process. Since the initial formation meeting, nine monthly community meetings have been held. All community meetings were advertised in the Molalla Pioneer newspaper, Molalla Prairie hamlet website, Clackamas County website and through flyers posted throughout the community.

Bylaws were drafted, presented, revised and approved at three community meetings. A postcard was mailed to all landowners identified in a database developed by Clackamas County GIS and based on the County Assessor's records. 1510 postcards were mailed. 1000 flyers were distributed to the community in an outreach effort spearheaded by formation committee members. All written material was sent to and published in the Molalla Pioneer. County Liaison assisted the formation committee as needed.

10 community members agreed to run for the Board of Directors. At the March 10 Town Hall, eight people representing a wide cross section of the community were elected. One-half will serve an initial one year term and one-half will serve two year terms. Officers will be elected by the Board at the first regularly scheduled meeting.

136 people voted in the formation election. 21 provisional ballots were cast and 20 were verified as valid. That makes this the third largest voting population in the 7 formation elections held so far.

The Hamlet of Molalla Prairie has developed a list of projects that include partnerships with the City of Molalla and the Hamlets of Beavercreek and Mulino. They will also participate in the committees that all other Hamlets and Villages serve on as well. They are ready to begin work on agri-tourism farm tours, farmers market, historical documentation of the rural Molalla area, outreach to community members who expressed skepticism about the usefulness of a hamlet and creation of a communication network including website, electronic bulletin board, publicity about the hamlet and how to participate in the hamlet.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. The BCC accept the affirmative results of the March 10 Town Hall meeting; ratify the bylaws; and declare the Hamlet of Molalla Prairie formed.
2. Assign the County's Hamlet & Village Liaison to continue to support the work of the Hamlet of Molalla Prairie.

Sincerely,

Elissa Gertler
Director, Public & Government Affairs

Community Solutions for Clackamas County (CSCC), a division of the Health, Housing & Human Services (H3S) requests approval to apply for a grant from the Workforce Investment Council of Clackamas County (WICCO) for specialized work force services. CSCC currently has a WICCO grant as a subcontractor of Clackamas Community College to provide specialized workforce services for our Working for Independence (WFI) program. The WICCO has decided to subcontract with entities directly, to provide workforce services to job seekers with significant barriers to employment and in need of more intensive services. The source of the funding is the federal Workforce Investment Act (WIA).

CSCC will be applying for approximately $125,000. The grant period begins July 1, 2010 and ends June 30, 2012. The grant may be renewed.

The grant will provide intensive job training, placement and retention services to job seekers who face significant barriers to employment. The WICCO identified barrier populations to be served in their RFP which our proposal addresses: Residents of Public Housing, Community Corrections clients, people with severe and persistent mental illness, Veterans with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Traumatic Brain Injury, and clients of the five Clackamas County treatment courts. It also provides for salaries for an allocated job developer, fringes, travel expenses, office space, equipment, printing and direct training and supportive services to job seekers we will be serving in Clackamas County. Approval Amendment #3 to the Contract with LRS Architects Inc. for the Clackamas County Jail Renovation Design

On May 7, 2009, the Board of Commissioners approved a contract with LRS Architects Inc. to renovate the existing Clackamas County Jail to accommodate additional capacity and update critical systems. LRS Architects Inc. was selected for this project because of their ongoing participation in the development of the Adult Detention Facility project. LRS proposed to provide design services as well as oversight of the necessary subcontractors to provide complete structural, mechanical and security electronics engineering, as well as landscape design.

The initial project contemplated the placement of an Early Resolution Court function in the Jail facility. Near the end of the development of the design process it was determined that the Early Resolution Court function would not be placed in the facility and that the design should be revised to repurpose the area. This amendment reflects the work associated with the multiple design iterations and document revisions associated with the removal of the Early Resolution Court and the subsequent re-planning of Block B and revision to the South Station design.

This is the third Amendment to the original contract. Amendment #1 addressed the addition of a waterline replacement requested by the City of Oregon City and video visitation systems to the project. Amendment #2 provided for a limited asbestos and lead paint survey to be conducted.

This amendment has been reviewed and approved by County Counsel.

Funds for this contract will be included in the Sunnybrook/Jail Renovation project financing under budget line 420-0221-00-431000-76077. The total amount of this contract is not to exceed $1,022,945.00 (original $850,490.00 + Amendment #1 $72,700.00 + Amendment #2 $6,645.00 + Amendment #3 $93,110.00).

Board of Commissioners
Clackamas County

Members of the Board:

Annual Adoption of the Clackamas County Investment Policy

The Clackamas County Investment Policy requires annual adoption by the Board. There are no substantive changes to the policy. One minor change is recommended which removes language that excludes money market funds as an investment. The county currently uses money market funds for investments of bond proceeds as well as other county liquid funds.

RECOMMENDATION:

The staff respectfully recommends that the Board adopt the Clackamas County Investment Policy as submitted.

Sincerely,

Shari Anderson
County Treasurer
