Design Team Members Present: Jennifer Hoffman, Jim Kalvelage, Opsis Architecture; Mona Zellers, Ray Johnston, Johnston Architects

The meeting began at 5:35 p.m.

Task Force Chair, Lisa O'Brien and Vice-chair, Laurene McClintock welcomed the task force and reviewed the meeting agenda. Lisa noted the goal of the meeting was to review the draft design evaluation criteria.

Meeting summaries from February 5, 2020 and April 22, 2020 were approved with one clarification to the public comment from the April 22nd meeting.

Allison Brown noted the draft criteria was based on the task force values. Kathryn reviewed how the design team will be utilizing the criteria to review the design alternatives with the task force and later this summer, with input from the public. Kathryn stated the evaluation criteria is also a good tool to help understand the differences between the alternatives.

Design team members presented the criteria and how it relates to the task force values.

Questions and comments were collected from task force members both during and after the presentation.

The task force was asked to vote on the draft criteria. The task force voted unanimously to approve the criteria with changes emphasizing it should be clear that the future of the library and its design should be incorporated into the criteria.

Allison said changes would be attached to the meeting summaries.

Next Steps

Kathryn Krygier reviewed the upcoming schedule for the task force including the next meeting dates May 20th and June 3rd. Kathryn shared that hard copied drawings will be distributed to the task force members home address on May 19th.
