Exhibit 1

PURPOSE, SERVICE DESCRIPTION, SERVICE OBJECTIVES AND ELEMENTS OF COMPLETION

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The purpose of this Agreement is to increase participation of older American Latinx and Hispanic households in COUNTY-offered programs, resources and other public programs in Clackamas County (“Program”). Eligible participants are defined as Latinx and Hispanic households with one or more residents aged 60 or older who may benefit from participation in any additional social service programs offered within Clackamas County.

SUBRECIPIENT will, with assistance from COUNTY’s Social Services Division, identify eligible households and/or their caregivers among rural Clackamas County, provide information on available services and benefits, gather relevant information about access to healthy foods and supportive social services resources, and follow-up with participants with a phone call or visit to measure increased participation. Specifically, SUBRECIPIENT will gather information through outreach/listening sessions, community meetings, distribution of service/benefits information, surveys and assessment information, and post-participation data gathering. COUNTY seeks to obtain data on barriers to participation for these populations from SUBRECIPIENT’s efforts during delivery of the Program.

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

SUBRECIPIENT will organize outreach/listening sessions for Latinx and Hispanic households in rural Clackamas County to include the towns of Sandy, Eagle Creek, Estacada, Colton and Molalla. The intent of these outreach/listening sessions will be to provide information about available services and benefits as well as gather information from the families about their experience of access to (1) culturally appropriate and health foods, (2) culturally aware and linguistically appropriate resources, and (3) culturally appropriate services for household members age 60 years and older. Access is defined as the ability for any member in the household to easily learn about, contact, communicate, or receive support and/or services. SUBRECIPIENT will also identify supports and services available to the Latinx and Hispanic households offered by COUNTY programs, local food banks, churches, community centers, senior centers, and healthcare providers in rural Clackamas County. These supports and services will serve as topics informing the outreach/listening session questions and process.

SUBRECIPIENT shall utilize a uniform format for outreach/listening sessions to include: (1) a standard survey determining eligibility of individuals and/or their caregivers and identified supports and services with choices reflecting access, (2) a list of available resources, supports, and services, and (3) opportunities to share informally about personal experiences with access to supports and services.

SUBRECIPIENT will offer safe culturally appropriate family environments for the outreach/listening sessions and all activities/questions will be offered in Spanish and English. Outreach/listening sessions will occur in Sandy, Estacada, and Molalla and may also occur in other smaller rural settings if needed for better community access.

SUBRECIPIENT will identify potential clients and/or caregivers and provide information on available services and benefits. Outreach/listening sessions are designed to be interactive and supportive so that participants are open in sharing honest thoughts and experiences about accessing supports and resources. There will be a minimum of 3 outreach/listening sessions in each of the communities of Sandy, Estacada, and Molalla. Service and eligibility data collected will include the following information: number of households, number of household members, number of seniors in each household, household supports and services utilized from identified resources, a reliable means of post-participation contact, and household experiences with access to identified resources. Access experiences will be reviewed in reference to written communication, verbal communication, social media, e-mail, and person-to-person interactions.

SUBRECIPIENT will re-contact participants approximately three months after participation in a listening session to gather data on eligible participants' increase in referred-program participation. Contact may be through any means chosen by SUBRECIPIENT, including additional listening sessions. SUBRECIPIENT shall collect the following information during the re-contact phase:

- Whether the participant attempted to apply for any of the referred programs
- The name(s) of the program(s) where an attempt was made and the organization offering the program
- The success of that application, if attempted
- The experience of the participant with the application process and the benefits received

OUTCOMES

Success of the Program is defined as:

- Measurable increase in participation in additional programs offered within Clackamas County
- The collection of all data described in this Exhibit 1 and inclusion in reports to COUNTY, both during listening sessions and re-contact phases.
