
Friday, June 29 to Saturday, June 30, 2018

Resort at the Mountain
68010 East Fairway Avenue
Welches, OR 97067

Retreat Overview

The 2018 C4 Retreat will be dedicated to discussing the goals and desired outcomes for transportation within Clackamas County. Friday will be devoted to understanding transportation projects and goals of jurisdictions/entities countywide, and Saturday will focus on what success looks like and agreement on action steps needed to achieve that success.

Friday, June 29

- 1:00 p.m. Welcome & Introductions
Chair Jim Bernard & Mayor Brian Hodson, Co-Chairs
Amy Herman, Facilitator
- 1:15 p.m. Transportation Goals for Clackamas County
Presenting: Karen Buehrig and Steve Williams, Clackamas County
Retreat attendees will review the results of the transportation questionnaire and begin identifying overall transportation system goals Clackamas County should be striving towards together.
- 2:45 p.m. Break
- 3:00 p.m. I-205 Widening Project Status and Value Pricing Recommendation
Presenting: Rian Windsheimer, ODOT; Chris Lyons, Clackamas County
The Value Pricing Policy Advisory Committee established by HB 2017 is expected to reach their final recommendation on June 25. This will have significant bearing on the future of the I-205 corridor and the I-205 widening project.
- 4:00 p.m. Transit Goals within Clackamas County
Presenting: Karen Buehrig and Teresa Christopherson, Clackamas County
As part of the overall transportation strategy and in light of new transit funding from HB 2017, attendees will discuss transit priorities for Clackamas County.
- 5:00 p.m. Break
- 5:15 p.m. Tualatin Transportation Bond Measure
Presenting: Sherilyn Lombos, City of Tualatin
The recent election decided the fate of multiple bond measures within Clackamas County, including passage of the City of Tualatin's $20M general obligation bond for transportation improvements. This lessons learned session will help to inform efforts to pass future bond measures among C4 jurisdictions.
- 6:00 p.m. Dinner (provided)

Saturday, June 30

8:00 a.m. Breakfast Discussion

Facilitating: Amy Herman

- What do we want to accomplish together?
- Where do I-205 widening and Sunrise Phase II fit within our goals?

8:50 a.m. Proposed 2020 Regional Transportation Bond

Presenting: Karen Buehrig and Chris Lyons, Clackamas County

Following the June 7th C4 update from Metro on the regional transportation bond measure, retreat attendees will have the opportunity to discuss amongst themselves possible countywide goals for the bond.

9:50 a.m. Break

10:00 a.m. The Road Ahead, 2018: A Continued Conversation

Presenting: Dan Johnson, Clackamas County and Shelly Parini, Clackamas County

C4 members will continue the conversation on local transportation funding needs and options, and begin thinking about what steps are required to achieve transportation goals in Clackamas County.

11:30 a.m. Break

11:45 a.m. Lunch Discussion

Facilitating: Amy Herman

- Based on the retreat, what guidance can you give to the Executive Committee on how to build the 2018/2019 C4 Work Plan?

1:00 p.m. Adjourn