3. Lisa Massena introduced the speakers:

Hoodland Women's Club, Lisa Massena

Steve Carlson, Neighborhood Missions

Neal Hatley, Ant Farm

NAMI, Dave Hunt

Each speaker outlined the resources available at low or no-cost to our community, including firewood, debris collection, food, medical supplies, mental health services, utility and rent assistance.

Lisa mentioned the Hoodland Library can serve as a warming shelter during their operating hours, and Church on the Mountain has help available to those in need.

Also mentioned was the Hoodland Senior Center and Mt Hood Corridor Wildfire Partnership.

HCPO will provide links to resources on the HCPO G-drive.

4. New Business: Marti gave a brief description of General Mobile Radio Service (GMRS). HCPO is spearheading this effort to inform the community of GMRS, to have training available for radio communications during an emergency when cell service is down and community members need to reach emergency services. If you have interest, please contact HCPO at hoodlandcpo@gmail.com. More information to follow and a meeting scheduled for interested community members.

5. Adjournment. Pat made a motion, Marti seconded, no further discussion. Approved by Board, 6 aye. Meeting adjourned at 8:04 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Marti Bowne
