It is also subject to the ZDO's definitions, procedures, and other general provisions, as well as to the specific rules of the subject property's zoning district and applicable development standards, as outlined in the ZDO.

B. Turn in all the following:

- Complete application form: Respond to all the questions and requests in this application, and make sure all owners of the subject property sign the first page of this application. Applications without the signatures of all property owners are incomplete.
- Application fee: The cost of this application is $700. Payment can be made by cash, by check payable to "Clackamas County", or by credit/debit card with an additional card processing fee using the Credit Card Authorization Form available from the Planning and Zoning website. Payment is due when the application is submitted.
- Plot plan: Provide a plot plan (also called a site plan). A Plot Plan Sample is available from the Planning and Zoning website. The plot plan must be accurate and drawn to-scale on paper measuring no larger than 11 inches x 17 inches. The plot plan must illustrate all of the following (when applicable):

 - Location of utilities, wells, and all onsite wastewater treatment facilities (e.g., septic tanks, septic drainfield areas, replacement drainfield areas, drywells).

C. Also submit any of the following, as applicable:

Identify, with specific dates if possible, when the existing/proposed use, structures, and/or physical improvements were established.
- Evidence of the following: Attach documents and records substantiating:
 - The types of expenditures incurred, how the expenditures were related to the completion of the project, and how the expenditures could not serve other uses of the land
 - The ratio of expenses incurred at the time of the proposed change in law to the total cost of the completed project
 - The good faith of the landowner
 - Whether or not the landowner had notice of any proposed change or mandatory change in law before starting the use or improvements
 - How the acts of the landowner rise beyond mere contemplated use or preparation (contemplated use or preparation includes such acts as leveling of land, boring of test holes, or preliminary negotiations with contractors or architects)
- Expenditures list: Attach a list of expenditures incurred developing the use in relation to the total cost of establishing the use.
- Consideration of other potential uses: Explain in an attached written narrative why the improvements for the use could or could not be used for purposes allowed by the current zoning of the subject property.
- Timeline of improvements: Attach a timeline describing the sequence of events establishing the proposed use or improvements, including details of when specific improvements or other work began and when such work was completed.
- Copies of Measure 37 decisions: If the application is related to a Measure 37 claim, attach copies of both County and State Measure 37 claim decisions.
- Measure 37 expense information: If related to a Measure 37 claim, attach information regarding any expenditures for work (if any) and explanations of why it was initiated, continued, or completed after Measure 49 was referred to the ballot by the 2007 Oregon Legislature. Also attach information regarding any expenditures for work (if any) and explanations of why it was initiated, continued, or completed after Measure 49 took effect on December 6, 2007.

- Copies of establishment and continuity evidence: Attach copies of receipts, licenses, bills of sale, notarized affidavits, etc. demonstrating the date of establishment the proposed use, structure(s), and/or physical improvements, and the continuity of any portions of the use since established.

FAQs

What is a vested right?

A “vested right” protects a land use that is not yet fully established but would otherwise be prohibited under current land use regulations. Approval of a Vested Right Determination authorizes a property owner to complete and continue a use of real property even though the law has changed. Based upon decisions of the Oregon courts, a Vested Right Determination is based on prior court cases, rather than on approval criteria in the Zoning and Development Ordinance (ZDO). Typically, the primary issue in these determinations is whether there has been a sufficient good-faith commitment to a particular use that it may be completed even though it will become nonconforming to current land use regulations. Vested rights are considered on a case-by-case basis.

What is the application process for a Vested Right Determination?

Applications for vested right determination are subject to a “Type II” land use application process, as provided for in Section 1307 of the ZDO. Type II decisions include notice to owners of nearby land, the Community Planning Organization (if active), service providers (sewer, water, fire, etc.), and affected government agencies. If the application is approved, the applicant must comply with any conditions of approval identified in the decision. The Planning Director’s decision can be appealed to the County Hearings Officer.

What is needed for the County to determine if a use or improvement is a vested right?

For a use, structure, or other physical improvements to be considered a lawfully established vested right, the applicant must submit evidence to prove there was a good faith commitment to complete the use, structure, or other physical improvements before the relevant change in law was proposed. Factors to be considered when determining a vested right have been established over time through court cases and include factors in the information, records, and documentation requested in this application form. A determination will only be made after a complete application is received and reviewed. The County approves an application only if it finds that the proposal meets the standards.

How long will it take the County to make a decision about an application?

The County makes every effort to issue a decision on a Type II land use application within 45 days of when we deem the application to be complete. State law requires a final County decision on a land use permit application in an urban area within 120 days of the application being deemed complete, and within 150 days for a land use permit in a rural area.
